IDS 3933 - Cornerstone Experience (3 Hours)

Cornerstone must be taken in your first full semester in the major.

Cornerstone is intended to teach students to analyze the complex issues of today's world through the use of interdisciplinary concepts and processes.

First Area of Study (15 Hours)

Second Area of Study (15 Hours)

Two Areas of Study (15 Hours Each)

Interdisciplinary Studies organized the courses offered at UCF into 13 Areas of Study. Areas of Study are listed in BOLD on the back side of this handout. With the help of an advisor students will declare two Areas of Study that complement each other.

- A minimum of 15 credit hours between the 2 areas must be at the 3000/4000 level.
- A minimum of 15 credit hours must be completed through UCF. No more than 15 hours of transfer credits may be applied between the 2 areas.

Courses approved for use in each area are listed on our website, as well as on the degree audit. Only grades of "C" or better can be used towards an area of study.

Minor (18-31 Hours, depending on which minor you choose)

With the help of an advisor students will declare one required minor which complements the Areas of Study.

- The minor may not overlap content with the Areas of Study. On the back of this handout, minors are listed in ITALICS and are organized by which Area of Study they overlap with.
- Interdisciplinary and Multidisciplinary Minors overlap with multiple areas. These minors, listed in ITALICS at the bottom of the back side of this handout, can be combined with any areas as long as no courses overlap.

Students will consult with the department or unit that offers the minor for advising.

Online Programs of Study:

Areas and minors available online are UNDERLINED on the back of this handout. More information at:
