Work Groups

Hank Lewis

- Listening Groups: 3 for students, 1 for alumni, 1 for employers (electronic), 5 for faculty and staff (1 electronic)
- QEP Survey: 623 started the survey and 475 completed the survey
- Totals on pages are people who answered that specific question
- Work groups: each group is assigned a set of survey results to review and a set of listening group results to review
 - Examine the comments from the survey results and determine which 5 to 10 would be most useful for President Hitt or craft a statement that you think will assist him in selecting the best QEP topic
 - Consider positive and negative (constructive criticism) comments
 - Are there results that should be a listed as a comment instead of in the results area (something mentioned numerous times)
 - Examine the comments from the listening groups and determine 5 to 10 comments that best reflect the point of view of the group whose data you are reviewing
 - Consider positive and negative (constructive criticism) comments
 - Are there results that should be a listed as a comment instead of in the results area (something mentioned numerous times)
