

QEP Faculty Development Workshops

“What’s Next?” Student Professionalism

---

April 3, 2017      12:00-1:30 pm
Karen L. Smith Faculty Center
for Teaching and Learning
CB1 Room 205

Helping students connect what they are learning in the classroom to their professional goals increases student engagement and prepares them for what’s next. Learn how to incorporate professionalization assignments into any class. By the end of the session every faculty member will leave with an action plan for a professionalization assignment. Please join the conversation! Beverages and cookies will be provided.

Presenters: Vicki Lavendol (Rosen College of Hospitality Management), Kathleen Hohenleitner (Department of English), and Daniel Murphree (Department of History)

Please RSVP to QEP@ucf.edu no later than March 20, 2017. Let us know if you would like to join us via Skype.

Building Research-Intensive Courses

April 12, 2017      12:15-1:45 pm
Karen L. Smith Faculty Center
for Teaching and Learning

Undergraduate research is a meaningful, high-impact experience that builds problem solving skills, improves time management, and increases critical thinking. Join in an interactive session exploring research-intensive courses. Learn from and work with experienced faculty from a variety of disciplines. Strategize how to incorporate research-intensive assignments into existing courses or develop new courses. If you are interested in undergraduate research, please sign up! Beverages and cookies will be provided.

Presenters: Kelly Allred (College of Nursing), Kevin Jardaneh (Undergraduate Research), Adam Pritchard (Department of Sociology), Mary Tripp (Department of Writing & Rhetoric), and Anna Turner (Nicholson School of Communication)

Please RSVP to QEP@ucf.edu no later than April 3, 2017.
