

APPENDIX B

Types of digital stories for the classroom

Personal Narratives

- A story about a place in your life
- A story about an event in your life
- A story about someone important to you – character piece, memorial, family member, influence on you
- Love stories
- Memorial Stories
- Recovery stories

Historical

- Create a presentation based on images of local artifacts and architecture.
- Create a virtual tour of a country or historical place.
- Simulate a debate on an historical topic, such as the Bill of Rights
- Simulate an interview of a historical character
- Biographies
- Create a virtual tour of a country or historical place

Social Issues

- Create a public service announcement on an important local or world issue.

Instructional

- Inform or instruct on a concept or practice
- Narrated Presentation

Accomplishment Stories

Adventure Stories

Character Stories

A story about someone important in the field

A story about an event in your life – adventure, accomplishment

A story about a place in your life

A story about what you do

Discovery stories

STEM DISCIPLINE PROMPTS

Tell a story about the theory/concept you had the most trouble learning and how you came to understand it.

Tell a story that can explain a theory/concept to a fourth grader.

Tell a story about an individual famous in the field that you admire and why.

Tell a story about why you chose this field as your major and how you plan on utilizing what you learn after graduation.