This Spring, faculty teaching GEP courses demonstrating career readiness. UCF has awarded the first digital badge, Fundamentals of Written Communication, to students who completed GEP Communications core course ENC1101 in Fall 2022. Faculty should include it on their resumes and portfolios. Please use the latest dates and times.

I will schedule additional sessions as needed. Please check the General Education Faculty Learning Community (in the “Assessing the GEP at UCF” module) often for the latest dates and times.

We're excited to share that the GEP will have a track - Faculty Learning Community (GEP Faculty Learning Community). This track delving into topics such as creating a faculty status similar to Graduate Assistantships and FCTL’s Wintertime and Spring Conferences. It is an interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary, and a collaborative approach to undergraduate education.
