

Bachelor of Integrative General Studies

The Bachelor of Integrative General Studies offers a flexible and self-designed curriculum to degree-seeking students. The program allows students to draw on their multidisciplinary course work to refine and demonstrate their attainment of six learning outcomes that are in high demand.

- understanding of common human themes, awareness of diverse cultures, and understanding of the cultural, historical, economic, and social implications of learning experiences
- accomplishments as successful writers, speakers, and producers of digital materials in the academic, civic, and professional worlds
- understanding of scientific methods and ability to apply them to challenges facing society
- capacity as well-informed citizens who can reason and can apply analytical, statistical, and computational methods to the challenges of a globally-diverse and technologically rich environment
- ability to assess and decipher information in a world full of conflicting sources
- understanding of leadership skills, including decision-making, collaboration, and problem-solving.
